MAKING BACK YOUR INVESTMENT IN THE FIRST 30 DAYS

Working on your WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN and WHY

1) WHO will plug into your business as a partner or customer?

Use the memory jogger to begin creating your list of people you will contact about the business and the products. Email to me your top 10...your "dream team"

2) WHAT will you say to your contacts? Remember...LESS is MORE!!

For local people:

"I have a new business I'm really excited about! Please join me at my launch to learn more so you can help me network and make it successful!"

For out of towners:

"I have a new business I'm really excited about! Will you help me by watching a video I'm going to send you? It's only 2 minutes long. After you've watched it we can chat and hopefully you can help me network and make it successful!"

After the above conversations have been had, get your upline involved in moving forward with them.

3) WHERE will you invite your contacts in order to hear more?

When you call them, you can invite them to one of three things:

- A conference call with your business partner
- A local meeting in your area or a business launch
- A weekly opportunity call (orientation call to the company)

4) WHEN will you work this business?

Please set your 10+ "hours of operation" of when you will be working this business

5) WHY are you doing this?

Create your "WHY" - send me a clear explanation as to why you are doing this and what your goals are.

Goals to help you get off to a FAST START during your first 30 days:

- Do your Big Business Launch
- Commit to a 30 day training time and check in regularly so we stay connected (training webinars available on the Rockin Robbins website)
- Commit to working your business at least 10 hours/week of income-producing activity
- Talk to at least one new person every day
- Commit to our Monday team collaboration call and the Sunday night training calls EVERY WEEK.

GOAL: Sponsor 2 new consultants and 4 preferred customers in your first 30 days!

(*note...New consultants have potential to do much more! We've seen new consultants recruit 10 their first month because of their excitement. GO FOR IT!!

Prospect List

As you create this list, remember, that you are offering people a gift: of great skin, or an incredible opportunity that could offer them time and financial freedom!

The DOs and DON'Ts of Making A List

DO make your list as long as possible

- It's your greatest asset when starting your business
- The longer your list, the greater your posture. If you have a list of 10 people and the first five say no, you will feel disappointed. However, if you have a list of 100, and the first five say no, you have 95 other people to contact!

DON'T ever prejudge anyone

- They could end up in someone else's organization. If you think they're great someone else does too!
- You never know what people will do, or who they could lead you too. Think: What is greater; the risk or the reward?

Steps to Developing your Warm Market List

1. Use the Memory Jogger to make a list of at least 75 - 200 people that you know on a first name basis and get their email addresses. Go through your Facebook contacts and cell phone contacts. In addition, you can use the Yellow Pages as a Memory Jogger. Start with the letter A and ask yourself, "Who do I know who is an Accountant, a Banker, a Carpenter.?" Review the Memory Jogger to help you.
2. You may want to split your paper in half. Put local contacts on one side (this will help you when you are creating invitations for your launch event). Put long distance contacts on the other side.
2. In the left column, identify those people on your list who:
 - Are Successful (S)
 - Are a "People" Person (P)
 - Have Strong Influence with Others (I)
 - Have a Need For the Product with Others (N)

These are the people you will contact first to share your business story, product story, and your company story. Use your upline for 3-way calls.

Refer to the Memory Jogger to help you.
